Traditional: joyful, sophisticated and refined

Processional: Pachelbel's: Canon in D

Signing: Vivaldi: Winter from the Four Seasons

Recessional: Handel: Hornpipe II from the Water Music

Framed by the Pachelbel and Handel is the lovely "Winter from the Four Seasons" by Vivaldi. The interplay between the bowed strings of the violin, and the 'pizzicato' or plucked strings of the cello creates a very interesting and intimate sound.

Romantic: elegant, smooth and graceful

Processional: Pachelbel's: Canon in D

Signing: Massenet: Meditation from Thais

Recessional: Mendelssohn: Wedding March

Pachelbel's Canon is such an elegant and calming piece of music, and one of the most popular requests for the processional. It sounds fantastic played by a duo, trio or quartet, and is easy to walk down the aisle to this beautiful piece

Spring Garden: light, fresh and airy

Processional: Mouret: Rondeau

Signing: Bach: Wachet Auf

Recessional: Handel: Hornpipe from the Water Music

Mouret's Rondeau is a wonderful fresh and light piece to be played for the bridal processional. Its slightly bouncy character makes for a light hearted and fun processional. Perfect for a garden wedding!

Eclectic: fun, modern with a personal touch

Processional: Beatles: Here Comes the Sun
Signing: Christina Perri: A Thousand Years
Recessional: The Verve: Bittersweet Symphony

This grouping of songs adds a contemporary and modern feel to the classic wedding ceremony. Keep in mind that Duo d'Amore is often able to custom arrange popular songs to give your ceremony an unexpected twist.

Classic Mass: warm, full and traditional

Bridesmaids Processional: Bach Air on the G-string
Bride Processional: Canon in D
Signing: Bach-Gounod: Ave Maria
Communion: Bach: Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring
Recessional: Handel: La Rejouissance from the Royal Fireworks
